THE MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI S. B. CHAVAN) : (a) and (b) Foreign Contribution (Regulation) Act pertains to the year 1976 and not to the year 1961. Association having a definite Cultural, Economic, Educational, Religious or Social Programmes can receive foreign contribution provided it gets registered itself under the F.C.(R) Act 1976 or obtains prior permission of the Central Government. The following is the receipt of Foreign Contribution as reported by associations during 1987 to 1990.

Year	Foreign Contribution Amount (in crores)
1987	Rs. 516.10
1988	Rs. 685.12
1989	Rs. 760.86
1990	Rs. 945.48

(c) and (d) The information involves around 13 thousand associations and in view of its voluminous nature it is not feasible to furnish names, addressed and other details in respect of each and every association.

Involvement of Youth in Development Projects

304. SHRI H. HANUMANTHAPPA : Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state :

(a) whether Government are aware that it is the unemployed educated youth who are being attracted towards terrorism, drug trafficking and such other unlawful activities; and

(b) if so, what are the plans before Government to involve these youth in large scale developmental schemes to divert their attention from such unlawful activities ?

THE MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI S. B. CHAVAN) : (a) and (b) The Government is fully aware of the situation and is determined to ensure that a durable climate of peace and stability prevails throughout the country. The policy of the Government is to deal firmly with terrorist elements in the country and to simultaneously step up socio-economic development in the affected areas to redress genuine grievances of the people.

The direct responsibility for public order lies with the State Governments. However, various steps are being taken in this direction, with close cooperation of the State Governments, to promote activities in sectors like rural development, youth welfare, small-scale industries, etc. The Central Government also assists the State Governments, to the extent possible, by extending financial assistance for promoting self employment opportunities.
